

Major in Supply and Value Chain Management

Motivated to improve the way companies work together?
In supply chain, it's all about delivering products to the right place at the right time for the right price.

In today's world of same-day delivery and globally sourced components, supply chain professionals are leading companies toward better productivity and profit. You'll use innovative analytic techniques to deliver sustainable end-to-end solutions valued by supply chain partners. You'll utilize leadership skills to communicate effectively across the entire organization and a global network of suppliers and customers. With skilled supply chain professionals in short supply, you'll have plenty of exciting career prospects.

Career Options

SAMPLE COURSES

Supply Chain Strategy

Systems Planning and Process Analysis

Demand Planning and Management

Logistics and Transportation

OUR FACULTY

Our professors are award-winning experts in supply chain who love to teach you the end-to-end thinking you'll need to see how the various aspects of supply chain can be leveraged for success.

The average starting salary for TCU Neeley Supply Chain Majors is nearly $57,000.
2018 graduates reporting data

MORE INFORMATION

www.neeley.tcu.edu/BBA
www.neeley.tcu.edu/SCM

What Sets Us Apart

Center for Supply Chain Innovation

Meet professionals through events, roundtables, panel discussions and case competitions, for mentorships, internships and career opportunities.

Supply Chain Company Project

Our best supply chain majors get to work for a variety of companies to gain experience in all aspects of a global supply chain. This is a great résumé-building and personal growth experience.

Study Abroad in London or China

Take classes from TCU professors at the London Executive Business School and delve into the ways businesses operate in the European Union. Travel to China to tour global supply chain companies to broaden your international expertise.

Supply Chain Advisory Board

Our sponsor companies help shape, recruit and hire supply chain students at TCU.

Neeley School of Business